The MacCallum House is a stunning three-hour drive north from the San Francisco Bay Area. To make your way to the Mac House, take Highway 101 north to Cloverdale. Exit Highway 128 west toward Fort Bragg/Mendocino. Highway 128 turns into Highway 1, which is nine miles south of Mendocino. Once you reach the town of Mendocino, turn left at the light—Little Lake, then left again at the stop sign—Lansing. Turn right at Albion Street. The MacCallum House is on the right in the middle of the block.

The closest airports are San Francisco (SFO), Oakland (OAK) and Sonoma County Airport (STS); there is also a local airport in Little River (FAA Identifier: 048) just south of Mendocino for small private planes. Luxury coach service is available with advance notice.

The original MacCallum House, built in 1882 by William Kelley, was a wedding gift to his daughter Daisy MacCallum, and is a historic landmark surrounded by lush gardens and expansive lawns. The Inn also includes MACCALLUM SUITES, a luxury mansion overlooking the Pacific Ocean, the historic MENDOCINO VILLAGE INN, another stately 1882 mansion set on Main Street, and OCEAN SONG, a large, two-bedroom vacation rental that sleeps six. The renowned MacCallum House Restaurant, located on the main property, serves local, seasonal, organic Northern California cuisine.

An easy stroll from all of our properties brings you to pristine beaches, art galleries, live theater, shops, restaurants and rugged ocean cliffs. The MacCallum House warmly welcomes travelers with children and pets.

The MENDOCINO VILLAGE INN, a stately 1882 mansion, is ideally situated in the heart of the village. There are thirteen beautiful rooms, each uniquely appointed. Several rooms have soaking tubs, oceans views, fireplaces and private entrances. The Celebrated Executive Chef Alan Kantor showcases North Coast wines, seafood, meats and produce with an emphasis on organics and quality purveyors.

"Absolutely everything we serve is prepared in our own kitchen, including breads, hand rolled pastas, and smoked meat, fish and poultry. We use only the freshest seasonal ingredients and feature local and regional organic and wild-crafted products whenever possible."

– Executive Chef Alan Kantor

The warm and inviting MacCallum House Restaurant and Bar serves beautiful North Coast cuisine. The sunny wrap around porch in the cafe and bar showcases casual, hearty fare, and the romantic fire-lit dining rooms offer a fine dining atmosphere. Combining the town's charm, history, local life and flavors, the "Mac House" is a great starting point for getting to know Mendocino.
